

SEMEN LAB ANALYST

- About Bullnanza: Bullnanza Stud Services is a livestock reproduction facility with a focus on male reproductive services. These services include semen collection, processing, sexed semen, semen sales, genetic testing, storage and shipping. Bullnanza has two locations in Sweetwater, TX and Stillwater, OK. We are committed to excellence and helping our customers reach their goals.
- The Primary Responsibility: Semen production and processing of multiple species
Including, but not limited to: bovine, canine, goats, and deer.
- Other Responsibilities:
1. Coordinating all labor and materials necessary for semen processing.
 2. Take a proactive approach to business expansion including public relations, marketing and strategic planning of facilities.
 3. Individual will be required to work with supervising veterinarian.
 4. Perform other duties as assigned by CEO and General Manager
- Education Requirements Candidate must possess a B.S. or M.S. degree, Animal Science degree preferred. Experience in semen evaluation and working in a lab preferred.
- Required Qualifications:
- Excellent people and managerial skills
 - The ability to work with people of different personality types and bring out their best.
 - Conflict resolution skills
 - Influence others on how to act and think
 - Communicate expectations and ask for feedback
 - Individual must handle animals in a manner that maximizes safety to both people and animals.
 - The ability to communicate clearly with all parties involved when handling animals.
 - The ability to show respect for animals and people at all times.
 - The ability to utilize scientific literature and communicate technical information to a nontechnical audience, both verbally and written.
 - Must possess Good computer and technical skills
 - Must be proficient in Microsoft Word and Excel
 - Individual must be able to demonstrate proficiency with In-house office equipment and computer software.
 - Capable of operating all equipment used for semen collection and processing.
 - Individual must have a strong work ethic
 - This requires the ability to demonstrate initiative on a daily basis.
 - Develop and plan activities to ensure proper completion in a timely manner.

- Accomplish work through the effective management of employees and time.
- The successful candidate will be expected to work some weekends and be able to work 60hrs per week during the fall and spring breeding seasons.

Salary and Benefits

Competitive Salary based on qualifications, paid health insurance, dental and vision, and paid vacation and sick leave.