

Job Title: Part-Time Groundskeeper

In search of a part-time groundskeeper that has previous machinery experience with a tractor and or a skid steer. Routine maintenance for bull pens, barns and equipment will be main priority. The secondary focus for this position will be assisting with bull collections and collection material preparation and breakdown.

Required Qualifications:

- Excellent people and managerial skills
 - The ability to work with people of different personality types and bring out their best.
 - Conflict resolution skills
 - Influence others on how to act and think
 - Communicate expectations and ask for feedback
- Individual must handle animals in a manner that maximizes safety to both people and animals.
 - The ability to communicate clearly with all parties involved when handling animals.
 - The ability to show respect for animals and people at all times.
 - The ability to utilize scientific literature and communicate technical information to a nontechnical audience, both verbally and written.
- Must possess good computer and technical skills
 - Must be proficient in Microsoft Word and Excel
 - Individual must be able to demonstrate proficiency with In-house office equipment and computer software.
 - Capable of operating all equipment used for semen collection and processing.
- Individual must have a strong work ethic
 - This requires the ability to demonstrate initiative on a daily basis.
 - Develop and plan activities to ensure proper completion in a timely manner.

- Accomplish work through the effective management of employees and time.
- The successful candidate will be expected to work some weekends and be able to work 60hrs per week during the fall and spring breeding seasons.

PLEASE SEND RESUMES FOR ACCTS@BULLNANZA.COM